

MCTA FALL MEETING

OCTOBER 28, 2016

KEY POINTS FOR AGENDA ITEMS ASSIGNED TO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Report on 2016 Summer Institute

- 13th consecutive professional development institute;
- Increased participation with several school systems sending CTE teams:

Comparison Registration Data 2015 and 2016 Summer Institutes as of 7/23/16—Duplicate Counts

	2015	2016
School Systems	9	14
CTE Participants	10	21
CTE Directors	9	11
CTE Principals	2	6
Executive Director	1	1
Invited Speakers	4	3

- Agenda included professional development by both MCTA members and outside presenters;
- Presentations were both informative and modeled best instructional practice through interactive learning techniques. The group learned about and participated in a demonstration and practice of the EdCamp process;
- Participants had the benefit of a keynote speech and discussion led by Frederick County superintendent Dr. Theresa Alban who is the immediate past president of the superintendents' professional organization; and
- The 2016 Summer Institute finished in the black.
- All of these points addressed last year's identified concerns of:
 - Attracting more participants
 - Not being a drain on the MCTA treasury
 - Providing more meaningful professional development

Executive Director's Report

Now that I have completed a year in the position of MCTA Executive Director, I have experienced or implemented all of the expected tasks of the job. I continue to communicate with MCTA members and work with the Collaborative Team to plan meaningful meetings and a summer institute. I keep current with CTE issues through attendance at the MSDE meetings and I am available to work with new CTE directors.

The dates and locations of upcoming MCTA meetings are:

- MCTA Spring Meeting—Wednesday March 29, 2017—Arlington Echo in Anne Arundel County is the meeting site; and
- 2017 MCTA Summer Institute—Monday July 24 – Wednesday July 26, 2017—Hunt Valley Inn with the Annual Dinner and time to honor retirees on Tuesday July 25th
