

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Michael Weglein, ED@acte-maryland.org

Baltimore, MD – 2/8/2022

Nicole Clarke from Prince George's Community College named 2022 CTE Postsecondary Professional of the Year by the Maryland Career and Technical Administrators chapter of the Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE).

Clarke is the Director of the Prince George's Community College (PGCC) Teaching and Learning Center. She has also served as Associate Professor at Prince George's Community College, in the Wellness, Culinary Arts and Hospitality department and primarily taught courses in the field of hospitality. Ms. Clarke is a former local catering manager at the Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center in National Harbor Maryland. She has served 20+ years in the hospitality industry; eight years in the United States Army Reserves and performed as a food service specialist/nutritionist at Walter Reed Army General Hospital. Ms. Clarke earned her baccalaureate degree in hospitality and tourism from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and completed her master's in project management with the University of Maryland University College. She earned and has been recognized with Certified Meeting Professional, Certified Professional Catering Executive and Certified Hospitality Specialist designations. She has been an active member of the National Association of Catering and Events and has served on the board for 10 years as President, Vice President, Membership Chair and CPCE spokesperson for the Greater Washington, DC Chapter.

443-742-8600

ED@acte-maryland.org

<http://www.acte-maryland.org>

@actemaryland

